Stand For Life in Philadelphia!

Saturday, January 26, 2019

8:00-9:00 AM Prayer Vigil at the "Philadelphia Women's Center" abortion chamber at 777 East Appletree Street

9:30 AM Mass at nearby Holy Redeemer Church at 915 Vine Street - followed by a reception in the Parish Center

Approximately one million people, many of whom are young and from the Philadelphia area, will join the March For Life in DC on January 18, 2019. This January 26th event provides an opportunity to continue this support for protecting the sanctity of all human life in our local area.

The Philadelphia Women's Center is the largest abortion chamber in Pennsylvania, where approximately 5,500 children are killed and their mothers injured by abortion every year. Your presence will help to save lives, make reparation, provide a public witness against the deadly injustice of abortion, and renew the commitment of those involved in our Philadelphia area pro-life movement.

Please Join Us!

The 9:30 AM Mass serves as a Memorial Mass for John Patrick Stanton who died on January 30, 2014 at the age of 86.

John served as the founder of the pro-life movement in our area, whose leadership and sacrifices saved many lives from abortion - and inspired others to do so.

This event is sponsored by Generation Life, the Pro-Life Coalition of Pa., and other local pro-life organizations. For additional information, contact 215-393-3610 or paprolifecoalition@gmail.com.
